➤ 8 - PP: review Parts II

- Part I: general understanding of the doctrine, review Scriptures that prove it wrong

- Part II: Max King's hypothesis, spiritual method of interpretation, and transmillennialism, allegory of Abraham and his two sons, Scriptures that show doctrine to be false

- Part III: truth regarding the allegory of Abraham and his two sons

- since we studied so much about what the allegory "was not" in the last lesson, I thought we should study about what the allegory actually means in this lesson

- the book of Galatians and the allegory of Abraham doesn't support King's spiritual method of interpretation, nor transmillennialism, rather shows they are false doctrines

- We can't be saved by the law, only by faith through Christ – context of the Abrahamic allegory
 - Gal. 1:4 Jesus saves us, rescues us from the present evil age
- - Gal. 4:5 Jesus redeem us from the law, that we might receive the adoption – law can't save
 - transmillennialism false: both covenants not coexist
- - Gal. 1:6-9 people who teach we can be saved by keeping the Mosaic Law in any way are accursed
 - Gal. 5:8 these teachers did not come from God– they were false teachers
 - Gal. 5:9-10 we should not adopt their view – not heed their teaching and obey them
- - Gal. 5:4, 7 people who follow their teaching, seeking to be saved by keep the Mosaic Law in any way are lost and do not obey the truth
 - Gal. 3:1 foolish, bewitch by false teachers
- - Gal. 2:20-21 truth: righteousness not come through the law but through Christ
 - if we try to be saved, or serve God by keeping the Mosaic Law in any way, we are lost
 - can't be saved by the Mosaic Law, only by faith through Christ
- Sons through faith, not Mosaic Law – Abrahamic allegory exemplifies the point Paul is making here
 - Gal. 3:6-7, 8, 9 sons of Abraham through faith
- - Gal. 3:10-12 under a curse if of the works of the Mosaic Law
 - Gal. 4:8a not know God while under the law, but slaves
- - Gal. 3:13-14 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law
 - Gal. 3:16 “seed” of the promise is Jesus
 - Gal. 3:17-18 Mosaic Law not invalidate covenant / promise made with Abraham
- - Why then the law?
 - Gal. 3:19a transgressions
 - Gal. 3:21b law not impart righteousness, life
 - Gal. 3:23-24 law was custodian and tutor, to bring them to Christ, so may be justified by faith
 - Gal. 4:2 law was a custodian and manager
- - Now that faith has come, we're no longer under a tutor (Mosaic Law)
 - Gal. 3:25 faith, no longer under Mosaic Law
 - Eph. 2:15-16; Col. 2:13-14 Mosaic Law abolished and put to death at the cross
 - can't keep Mosaic Law to be saved
 - two covenants not coexist
 - Gal. 3:26 sons of God through faith in Jesus
- - How do we become sons of God through faith in Jesus? – baptized into Christ
 - Gal. 3:27, 29 baptized into Christ
 - Gal. 4:5-7 redeemed from law, adopted and now sons, no longer slaves, heirs of God
 - Gal. 6:2 live under law of Christ

➤ Allegory: Abraham and his two sons

- Gal. 4:8-9 allegory shows that to live under the law of Moses means:

- not know God
- enslaved
- so, not a son of Abraham hence not a child of God

- warning: allegory not establish the spiritual method of interpretation, thus transmilenialism as Max King alleges

- Max King: "This simple allegory (Galatians 4:21-31) establishes the 'spirit of prophesy'" (The Spirit of Prophecy, 2nd Edition, King, p. 370)

➤ - Gal. 4:21-31 allegory: Abraham and his two sons

- two women – a wife and a concubine

- Sarah was a free woman, and her children are free as the children of promise
- Hagar was a slave, and her children are enslaved

- Sarah and Hagar represent two covenants – one is slavery, other is free

- Hagar represents the Mosaic covenant (earth Jerusalem), under which people are enslaved

- Sarah represents new covenant in Jesus' blood, heavenly Jerusalem, free as children of promise

- vs. 28, 31 Christians are children of promise, of the Spirit – free

- vs. 29 ones of flesh persecute ones of the Spirit – Jews (non-Christians) persecute Christians – enslaved persecute free

- vs. 30 Jews (children of bondwoman) cast out, excluded by God

- Lk. 12:31-32 seek first God's kingdom, "Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father has chosen gladly to give you the kingdom."

- the allegory proves from the Old Testament that you must be in Christ to be saved, else God excludes you – can't keep Mosaic Law to be saved

- shows transmilenialism is a false doctrine – two covenants not coexist

- Eph. 2:15-16; Col. 2:13-14 Mosaic Law abolished and put to death at the cross

➤ - Gal. 6:2 we fulfill law of Christ, not Mosaic Law

- most of the law two chapters is about walking by the Spirit, as children of the promise, fulfilling the law of Christ – discussed in a recent series titled, "Walk By Faith, And You Won't Desert God"

- end Part III

- Galatians / Abrahamic allegory:

- transmilenialism a false doctrine

- only one way to be free, know God, and be His child – obey Jesus

- Jn. 3:31-32 "If you continue in My word, then you are truly disciples of Mine; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

- inv.: know the truth, obey Jesus, be set free from sin and death
